

DAVE LIEBER INTRODUCTION

We have an amazing story to tell, and our speaker is going to show us how to tell it.

Dave Lieber has spent more than 40 years working for daily newspapers. For the past 30 he's served as a columnist at the Fort Worth Star-Telegram and now at The Dal- las Morning News, where he writes two columns a week as "The Watchdog."

Dave is an expert storyteller, a playwright, author of 8 books, but sometimes, he says, his stories write themselves. If you ask him about his most challenging story, it won't be the one about a murder he helped solve or dealing with crooked individuals and businesses. He'd tell you about the time his editor sent him to a nudist colony, where he was told to go and write about the full experience. Safe to say Dave didn't have much luggage for that trip.

Please welcome an old-school newspaperman who believes in digging out the facts the old-fashioned way and dishing them out fairly. From the great state of Texas .....
